We offer a new idea in interior furnishings for your consideration. No feature in modern home decoration is so artistic and appropriate as Wall Papers with Cut-out Borders and Cretonnes to match. These borders are supplied ready to apply to the wall, all cut out by steel dye, hydraulic press process. The narrow decoration, matching the sidewall cut out border, is one of the new ideas for 1910. Imagine the delightful harmony and finish which this scheme of decoration affords for your bedroom—your walls hung in some delicate shade with just enough strength of color and design to give character to your sleeping room and yet of such tone as to be a charming background for exquisite floral cut outs.

This mural treatment with curtains, bedspread, chair covering and bureau top, matching in color the shade of your sidewall and in design the exact detail of your graceful floral border, is indeed a decorative achievement.

Our sidewalls and cut-outs, in a variety of colorings and designs, have unusual artistic merit.

This is why we are enthusiastic. Do you blame us?

Dreamland feature, "The Price of Fame," was released only a few days ago. That it is to be produced here in Barre now shows the enterprise and zeal the Dreamland management displays in securing new, first-class pictures for the entertainment of the public. This picture is a fine drama, written around a famous musical composer, who is living to-day. Welsh has a new song that will undoubtedly make a hit.

"The Masked Lady" made a distinctly favorable impression last night at the Bijou with her song, "For Love, for Life." She has a voice of rich quality, and it is a real treat to hear her sing. To-night she will render selections from one of the world-famous operas. To-day and to-morrow will be the last opportunities to hear "The Masked Lady" sing in Barre. The pictures, both the dramas and the comedies, are superior grade.

WAS LAWYER AND FARMER.

J. R. B. Wilkins Died at Vergennes Yesterday.

Vergennes, March 4.—J. Reuben B. Wilkins of Ferrisburg, who became suddenly ill last week while on his way to this city and had to be taken to the home of Dr. V. W. Waterman, died there yesterday morning from a shock of apoplexy, aged 76 years. Mr. Wilkins was born in this city September 18, 1834, and had been for many years a prominent farmer of Ferrisburg. He was a graduate of the university of Vermont, class of 1855. In 1856 he read law with W. W. Cook of Burlington and was admitted to the bar of Albany, N. Y., in 1857. He married in 1859 Harriet E., daughter of Matthias B. and Margaret (Penney) Quinnes of Wilkins, N. Y. For many years Mr. Wilkins had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Ferrisburg, of which he was a steward, and for a long while was treasurer of that society. He also held some town offices.

He is survived by a wife, one son, Daniel N. of Ferrisburg, two daughters, Mrs. Anna Roscoe of Troy, N. Y., and Mrs. Herbert Booth of Ferrisburg. The funeral will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church here Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

FARMERS ORGANIZE.

J. B. Wells President of New Association at Randolph.

Randolph, March 4.—The dairy farmers of Randolph were yesterday organized at a meeting held at the Randolph inn, by W. A. Hunter of Worcester, Mass., a representative of the Boston Co-operative Milk Producers' company of New England. Mr. Hunter characterized the vicinity of Randolph as the best farming section he had seen in New England. In the month of January last, $35,000 was paid to farmers in this region for dairy products.

Officers for the local association were elected as follows: President, J. B. Wells; secretary, Byron A. Manchester; directors, Harmon White, J. B. Adams, Alfred Webster, Albert Tatro, Dana H. Morse, Lorin Snow, Albert H. Beedle, Arno Snow and John Benham.

CUT UP GIRL'S BODY.

Dr. George A. Fritch Found Guilty at Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., March 4.—Dr. George A. Fritch was found guilty yesterday of manslaughter in causing the death last summer of Maybelle Millman of Ann Arbor, dismembering the girl's body and throwing it into Ecorse creek. The case will be taken to the supreme court.

Liberty on bail while the appeal is pending will be requested by Fritch's attorneys. Dr. Fritch took the decision of the jury calmly but his wife fainted.

It took the jury 50 minutes to agree that Maybelle Millman met her death while Dr. Fritch was performing or attempting to perform a criminal operation upon her.

DIED FROM BURNS.

Mrs. J. M. Cass was Fire Victim at Lyndonville.

Lyndonville, March 4.—Mrs. J. M. Cass, totally deaf and a victim of the Tarbell block fire, which occurred on Monday evening, died yesterday at the home of James Webber, where she was taken after the fire. Her death was caused from the shock and burns and from inhaling smoke.

There's a Ring in a New Thing That Attracts the Eye if Not the Ear

Our new Line of Merchandise for this spring will be as pleasing to the ladies as though we had just opened up a new store with all new goods. Our goods for this season are of a higher grade than we have ever shown before and we hope none too good to suit those that want to see their money well spent.

Dress Goods

These are all of them new goods, not all of them new kinds, but new plots just opened up from the manufacturers. These come in new colors and new finish. They are in advance of former seasons.

Yard-wide Poplar Cloths are in great demand. They come in all colors and are the best cloths at 25c on the market to-day, being nearly as good as most 50c half wool cloths.

New French Serge, yard-wide, double-fold, in all the best colors, while we can get them, at 50c per yard.

Mohairs are to be good—yes, some of the best. These we have in all grades.

We have a particularly nice Mohair in black, fancy stripe, at $1.00 that will get very quickly.

For tailored skirts, we have a Black Beillean, made of best imported mohair, at $1.35 per yard.

Dress Goods

Poplin weaves are good, in both cotton and wool fabrics. We are showing in the Cotton Poplin a beauty in a full line of colors at 25c per yard. Silk finish.

Wool Poplins are our best. These come in all grades. The one that we ask you to see comes in black and colors at $1.00 per yard, and will compare with any $1.25 cloth.

Serges are good and are a cloth that holds its shape and color. We have a good one, 42 inches wide, at 75c per yard.

Shepherd Plaids in wool are good, especially in the larger checks. This we have 42 inches wide at only 65c per yard—a good 75c cloth.

White Serges are very good and will be getting better as the season advances. We have a good White Serge, heavy, and a beauty, at 75c per yard.

New lot of Fancy Suitings for tailored suits at $1.00 and $1.35 per yard.

Silks

This will be a good Silk season. The sale of Silks, having taken a great start, is pretty sure to continue all through the season.

To take care of our silk trade, we have a large assortment of patterns just the size of one suit. This gives a customer a chance to get a selected pattern, not like any other, and as to price we guarantee it to be right.

There is a demand for best grade Taffetas. These we buy in wide widths, as it cuts to better advantage and saves the purchaser fully 10 per cent.

We have a special and hope to have more. It is a yard-wide Messaline Silk in navy at $1.25 per yard. Did you ever see one as wide? It's the new thing and is sure to come. Narrow Silks must go—the wide ones are a big saving and not so many seams.

Our $1.00 yard-wide Black Taffeta is a good $1.25 grade. It is a special at our price.

One of our best pure dyed Black Taffetas comes from Brainerd & Armstrong and, while they expect us to get $1.00 for it, we are making it a leader at $1.37 1/2 per yard.

We are receiving some of the best made and prettiest Tailored Suits that ever came into our store. To this you will all agree as soon as you are shown the Suits.

WAITING FOR A WIFE.

One Man Who Thought Twenty Years Was Just a Starter.

"There's romance for you," said little Blinky, putting aside his morning paper. "This paper has a story of a college professor who met a beautiful girl twenty years ago, fell in love with her at first sight and then lost sight of her altogether. Now, after waiting for twenty years, he is rewarded by leading her to the altar as his bride. Just think of it, waiting twenty years for a wife!"

"What of it?" asked the genial philosopher. "There's nothing extraordinary about that. I've waited thirty-five years for mine."

"You? Waited thirty-five years? Why, I thought you'd been married that long!" said little Blinky.

"I have," said the genial philosopher. "That's how I know how long I've waited. I've waited for her to get her gloves on about three years. I've waited for her to change her hat about four years. I've waited while she said just one last word to the cook for at least five years. I've waited upstairs, I've waited downstairs, I've waited at church, I've waited at the theater, and I have waited in cabs, omnibuses, taxies, motorcars and the Lord knows what else besides. Fact is, Blinky, I've waited so long, so often and so regularly that between you and me that little college professor of yours, with only one wait of twenty years, strikes me as a miserable little piker."

—Harper's Weekly.

His Critic.

What astonishes the visiting Briton most is the manner in which every kind of immigrant to the United States adapts himself to the prevailing ideas about Englishmen. In the course of conversation with the noble Italian who condescended to brighten shoes the visitor informed the bootblack that he was an Englishman—and Englishmen had a great respect for Italians and had entertained Garibaldi in grand style.

"Ingles! Ha, ha! Ingles!" said Diego in soft, musical tones. "Ha! They spile no good. Dey droppe de hatch!"—Exchange.

Why Oklahoma Crows.

If all the chickens in Oklahoma were bunched into one big rooster it could stand astride of the Rocky mountains and its crow would rattle the statue of Liberty in New York harbor. If all the hogs in Oklahoma were just one big hog it could dig the Panama canal at one root, from shore to shore, down to sea level.—Mustang (Okla.) Enterprise.

D. F. DAVIS "The Druggist" 262 North Main St., Barre, Vt.

Franks of Language. A peculiar kind of blundering known as "folk etymology" is responsible for some of the queerest franks of language. An easy example will make this clear. Our American word "curryall" for a kind of vehicle is not a compound of "curry" and "all," but a slight distortion of the French "carriole," a diminutive car. The change was made in obedience to the universal tendency to assimilate the unknown to the known, to make words mean something by associating them with others which they resemble in sound. Often there is no etymological relation between the words associated, as when sparrowgrass is made out of asparagus. This particular corruption was once in such good colloquial use that Walker, the lexicographer, wrote, "Sparrowgrass is so general that asparagus has an air of stiffness and pedantry."

The Malay Shark. The Malay shark, called the "ikan yu," is the one most dreaded by the natives. During the terrible disaster of the French steamer La Seyne from its collision with the British ship Onda in the strait of Rhio last November, many of the ninety passengers lost were, as soon as they reached the waters of the strait, seized by the sharks and dragged beneath the surface to be devoured by these fierce Malaysian fish, which are especially feared by the native fishers and pearl divers. Seventeen species inhabit the far eastern seas, some of them attaining a length of twenty-five feet. It is reported that a black fin shark was captured some time ago whose liver weighed 250 pounds. The largest is the banking shark, which ranges from the Cape of Good Hope to Ceylon and often exceeds fifty feet in length.
